Ka Makana Ali'i Celebrates First Anniversary

KAPOLEI, HI (October 12, 2017) – Ka Makana Ali'i celebrates its first anniversary with fireworks, entertainment, sales, giveaways, and more — all weekend long! The anniversary celebration kicks off on Friday, October 20 and continues through Sunday, October 22. The event is a way for Ka Makana Ali'i to give back and show its appreciation to the community that has made it the center for West O'ahu.

Don't miss the classic Hawaiian sounds of Kapena on Friday night, along with a celebratory lion dance throughout the center and an exhilarating performance by an acrobatic troupe.

Entertainment surrounds the center all day on Saturday with stages in center court, in the Macy's wing and in the theatre wing of the mall.

- Bring the keiki as storybook characters come to life for a skit at center court.
- Stay for the hula halau, hip hop dancers, fire knife dancers and fireworks too!
- After the sun goes down, singer-songwriter Kimié Miner brings her soulful, acoustic sound to center court.

On Sunday afternoon, Na Leo Pilimehana will share their contemporary Hawaiian sound with shoppers at center court. School groups, hula halaus and musicians will take the stage throughout the weekend. And for all those who love fall fashion, stay for the fashion shows presented by Ka Makana Ali'i retailers.

"Every community needs a heart, we're excited to welcome you to ours," said Stephanie England, general manager at Ka Makana Ali'i. "It's been an amazing year as the center for West Oahu. We owe it all to our community who has embraced us as their gathering place."

In addition to sales from participating stores and special anniversary promotions, shoppers can take advantage of exclusive rewards and giveaways. Spend $150 at any store or restaurant and receive a Ka Makana Ali'i anniversary canvas tote bag, while supplies last. Shoppers can redeem their same-day receipts at guest services near Applebee's. And throughout the weekend, random shoppers will be surprised with exclusive gifts and prizes.

Enter to win the grand prize of a 49ers Field Pass Experience, which includes two tickets to the game, field passes and roundtrip airfare for two. Fill out an entry form at guest services near Applebee's and you could fly to San Francisco this December to see the 49ers play the Tennessee Titans, featuring Hawaii's own Marcus Mariota!
