Pro Football Hall of Famer Jerry Rice Returns to West Oahu for FREE Youth Football Camp

The legendary wide receiver will host a special Draft Day at Ka Makana Ali'i and an exclusive football camp at Kapolei High School for the youth of West Oahu

KAPOLEI, HI (June 13, 2018) — Ka Makana Ali'i Football Camp featuring Pro Football Hall of Fame Wide Receiver Jerry Rice is a one-day interactive program, offering youth ages 7 through 14 the opportunity to learn football fundamentals and sportsmanship.

This second annual camp not only teaches strategies of the game of football, it also focuses on life lessons through sports. The 2017 camp included former University of Hawaii coach June Jones, Kamehameha graduate Billy Pieper, Kapolei High School head football coach Darren Hernandez and former UH players Jeremiah Cockerhan and Kealoha Pilares.

WHAT: Ka Makana Ali'i Football Camp
A 2 ½ hour fundamentals clinic featuring Jerry Rice

WHO: Youth football players ages 7-14

WHEN: Monday, June 25
5:30–8 p.m.

WHERE: Kapolei High School
91-5007 Kapolei Parkway, Kapolei, HI 96707

NFL Films named Jerry Rice the greatest football player in history, and now student athletes have the opportunity to learn directly from him and an expert team of coaches in a high energy, positive environment. With a focus on skill development, all activities have been designed so that each student can participate regardless of current skill sets, position or playing experience.

This opportunity of a lifetime is offered for free thanks to the generous support of DeBartolo Development and its sponsors. Limited availability; please advise if interested.

Jerry Rice will also host a Draft Day at Ka Makana Ali'i's Center Court on Sunday, June 24 in honor of Jerry Rice Day. Head over to the Center for West Oahu for draft picks, an obstacle course and special happenings in honor of the legendary wide receiver.
