Kabana Opens First Hawai'i Location at Ka Makana Ali'i

KAPOLEI, HI (December 11, 2017) – Ka Makana Ali'i is proud to welcome Hawai'i's first Kabana to the center for West Oahu on Friday, Dec. 1. The men's and women's boutique offers a well-curated collection of contemporary brands and brings a unique twist on Island style.

Now open for the first time in Hawai'i, Kabana carries clothing, shoes and accessories inspired by Island style. From work style to a party and every occasion in between, find that new favorite dress, blouse, pants, skirt and more.

Kabana also offers all of the top stylish, on-trend accessories from clutch handbags to choker necklaces and more. The boutique features a men's section with printed shirts and shorts perfect for any style.

Kabana, located in the Macy's wing across Sephora, is a separate entity from KoKo & Palenki, but the first of its kind to open.

KoKo & Palenki started selling shoes in 1990 in Miami. They added clothing to the mix soon after and became South Florida's boutique destination for the fashion-obsessed. With three boutiques in some of Miami's most popular retail locations, KoKo & Palenki offers women the season's stylish trends with an eclectic mix of luxury brands and emerging designers.
