Ka Makana Ali'i Welcomes Missing Polynesia to the Center for West O'ahu

The Center's newest store is a local family owned and operated brand with a passion for Polynesian fashion and décor

KAPOLEI, HI (Nov. 26, 2024) — Ka Makana Ali'i welcomed Missing Polynesia to the Center for West O'ahu on Saturday, Oct. 26. Established in 2001, the local family owned and operated brand has a passion for Polynesian fashion and décor. The community is invited to discover their unique apparel and accessories for men and women inspired by cultural art and modern influences.

"We are proud to welcome Missing Polynesia to the Center for West O'ahu! It is a wonderful addition to the Ka Makana Ali'i 'ohana, just in time for the holiday season," said Stephanie England, general manager of Ka Makana Ali'i. "Our community has already welcomed Missing Polynesia with great enthusiasm and we can't wait for all our shoppers to discover all that this locally owned business has to offer!"

Located in the Macy's wing across from Zales Jewelers, the store carries a line of Polynesian products inspired by cultural art and modern influences. Popular women's apparel includes culottes, cover-ups, blouses, dresses, jumpers, and body suits in a variety of colors and prints. The brand also sells aloha shirts for men. Plus, discover keiki dri-fit polos and maxi dresses so the whole 'ohana can match.

"We're so excited to share our vibrant designs with the West O'ahu community!" said Meilin Vitale-Vae, owner of Missing Polynesia. "Infused with the spirit of aloha and designed from the heart, our collection blends bold colors and eclectic styles, harmonizing modern and traditional elements. We look forward to meeting more of the community this holiday season!"
