Ka Makana Ali'i Welcomes Razor Games, a Family Fun Nerf Entertainment Venue, to the Center for West O'ahu

The indoor Nerf battle arena is a glow-in-the-dark, space-themed venue perfect for keiki of all ages

KAPOLEI, HI (July 15, 2021) — Ka Makana Ali'i is pleased to welcome Razor Games to the Center for West O'ahu. The 2,860-square-foot indoor Nerf battle arena is home to a variety of Nerf blasters, custom-built barricades, and glow in the dark space-themed decorations. Located in the 'Ōlino Theatre wing between Famous Footwear and Spencer's, the arena includes a padded floor, hiding places, space-themed art, glow in the dark features and a private party room.

Keiki can choose between three blaster adventure levels at Razor Games ranging from $15 to $25 per half-hour session or $25 to $35 for a one-hour session. Razor Games socks ($3.50), eye protection and safety waivers are required for all players.

"We're excited to welcome Razor Games and bring this amazing indoor Nerf battle arena to the Center for West O'ahu," said Stephanie England, general manager of Ka Makana Ali'i. "Our community means so much to us and we're happy to bring another family-friendly activity space to the Center."

Party packages at Razor Games include two hours of play for up to 15 players, use of all Nerf blasters, unlimited ammo, eye protection & grip socks for all players, two hours in the party room with tables, table covers and chairs. For more information, please call Chelsie at (808) 388-8844 and follow along on Instagram @razorgameshawaii.

"I'm thrilled to bring another exciting experience to the keiki who visit Ka Makana Ali'i, and I can't wait to develop other fun, creative concepts for this growing community," said owner David Nagamine, who also opened Razor Drifting in February 2020, located in the Macy's wing of the Center. "Keiki can party at both of our facilities in the same day — drift and play Nerf — for over-the-top fun!"
