The Center for West O'ahu Welcomes Teapresso Bar to the Grove at Ka Makana Ali'i

Using natural and fresh local ingredients, Teapresso Bar creates custom made organic specialty coffee, brewed-to-order boba milk tea, fresh fruit smoothies and more

KAPOLEI, HI (June 16, 2022) — Ka Makana Ali'i is pleased to welcome Teapresso to the Center for West O'ahu. The new, 583-square-foot shop is located next to Foodland Farms at the Grove at Ka Makana Ali'i and will open on June 17. Teapresso Bar is the first on the Island to offer organic specialty coffee and brewed-to-order boba milk tea with organic and vegan options. On June 17, the first 100 customers to Teapresso Bar at Ka Makana Ali'i will receive a free milk tea with boba.

Each drink is custom made using natural and fresh local ingredients. In addition to coffee and tea, Teapresso Bar also offers a variety of beverages including organic lemonade, fresh fruit smoothies, and frappe.

"We are pleased to welcome Teapresso Bar to the Grove at Ka Makana Ali'i. This addition adds to our growing line up of locally owned businesses," said Stephanie England, general manager of the Center. "Teapresso Bar provides a new experience that will surely continue to showcase the incredible dining offerings the Center for West O'ahu provides."

Teapresso Bar was founded in 2014 by Steve Nguyen with the vision to bring healthier drink alternatives to the Island. The store offers board games and WiFi for customers, and upon request, space can be reserved for private parties and catering services can be provided for special events. Customers also have the convenience of ordering drinks online.

"We are so excited to bring Teapresso Bar to Ka Makana Ali'i. We believe we have found the perfect location to service the local communities of West O'ahu as well as those visiting our Island,” said Mike Wedge, owner of Teapresso Ka Makana Ali'i. “We look forward to sharing our aloha with everyone and welcoming all to enjoy our large selection of refreshing drinks!” Follow them on Instagram @teapressobarkamakanaalii.
