“Ka Makana Ali'i is excited to welcome our community to the Center with the Lei Ali'i Concert Series,” said Stephanie England, general manager of the Center. “We're grateful for this community partnership that honors Prince Kūhiō, who the name Ka Makana Ali'i pays tribute to. CNHA has been a wonderful partner to our Center, hosting a number of events and activities that make positive impacts in our community.”

The name Ka Makana Ali'i pays tribute to Prince Jonah Kūhiō Kalaniana'ole who conceived of the Hawaiian Homes Commission Act allotting hundreds of thousands of acres of government land to Native Hawaiians. This permanent homeland is a perpetual gift and legacy that lives on today. The Ka Makana Ali'i logo features ti leaves, a symbol of good luck in Hawai'i that signifies prosperity. The encircled ti leaves represent the vision of Ka Makana Ali'i as the “Center for West O‘ahu,” while the subtle use of hands in making the offering reinforces the meaning of the Center’s name, “The Royal Gift.”
