Celebrate National Drive Electric Week with Move O'ahu Electric at Ka Makana Ali'i

The free community event is presented by Blue Planet Foundation and Drive Electric Hawai'i

KAPOLEI, HI (September 22, 2022) — Ka Makana Ali'i is pleased to host Move O'ahu Electric on Saturday, Sept. 24 from 12 to 5 p.m. in the parking lot near Taqueria El Ranchero & California Pizza Kitchen at the Center for West O'ahu. Presented by Blue Planet Foundation and Drive Electric Hawai'i, the free community event celebrates National Drive Electric Week and features electric vehicle test drives, e-bikes and scooters, music, prizes, booths and more.

"The Center for West O'ahu is honored to be part of Move O'ahu Electric and celebrate National Drive Electric Week with amazing sponsors and community partners," said Ka Makana Ali'i general manager Stephanie England, "We're home to four charging stations for electric vehicles and welcome our community to charge their vehicles here while they shop and dine."

The community is invited to sign up to test drive an electric vehicle from BMW Honolulu or Arcimoto, enter to win prizes, and chat with current electric vehicle owners about their first-hand experience with ownership at a show and tell. Talk to charging station representatives and other community groups about the power of moving electric! Learn about new and improved ways to get around at the EBikes Hawaii booth with electric motorcycles, bikes, scooters, and more.

This event is sponsored by Drive Electric Hawai'i, Blue Planet Foundation, Ulupono Initiative, and Hawaiian Electric.

Ka Makana Ali'i is also partnering with Hawai'i Foodbank to collect non-perishable food items at this event. The community is invited to bring donation items to the Ka Makana Ali'i tent.
