Ka Makana Ali'i Welcomes Japan's Ghost Bus Experience to the Center on Weekends through May 1

Enjoy thrills, chills and screams every Saturday and Sunday at the Center for West O'ahu

KAPOLEI, HI (March 30, 2022) — Ka Makana Ali'i is pleased to welcome Japan's Ghost Bus experience to the Center's 'ohana now through May 1. The Ghost Bus is located in the parking lot of Ka Makana Ali'i near California Pizza Kitchen and 'Olino by Consolidated Theatres. It is a heart-thumping thrill available at no other shopping center in Hawai'i.

The community is invited to enjoy the thrills, chills, wide-eyed gasps, and screaming scary fun of Japan's Ghost Bus experience. Fans of horror films and zombie shows will find the Ghost Bus to be the ultimate haunted house on wheels, complete with sinister characters, ominous audio-visual sensory effects and an ever-present foreboding sense of fear and terror – all in the spirit of fun and creating memories to share with friends and family members.

"The Ghost Bus is an exciting experience that has been a favorite for people of all ages in Japan for many years," said Kenji Takahashi, general manager of Travel Plaza Transportation, a subsidiary of JTB Hawai'i. "We are proud to bring this truly unique attraction to Hawai'i and present it as a wonderful opportunity for friends and families to gather and have fun."

Presented by JTB Hawai'i, admission to the Ghost Bus experience is $15 ($13 for kama'āina) for ages eight and older. The thrilling experience, which lasts about 15 minutes, is available at the Center on Saturdays and Sundays through May 1. Reservations for the Ghost Bus must be booked online at <https://ghostbushawaii.com/>.
